APRIL AT CHATEAU-THIERRY

Tread lightly, April, this is hallowed ground—

*Tread lightly as your lyric feet can pass,
And sprinkle daffodils without a sound
And crocuses along the tender grass.
Let lilacs softly burst in bloom again,
And spread a carpeting of violets
For silver sandals of the quiet rain
That glitters like the flash of bayonets.*

Light up the hills with tulips' wind-blown flame

*As acolytes would light an altar-stone,
Twine poppies far too lovely for a name
Around the lonely crosses, one by one.
Tread lightly, April, soft and crystal-clear—
A generation's April slumbers here.*

—DANIEL WHITEHEAD HICKY

GEORGIA HAS EVER REVERENCED HER FALLEN HEROES

To a Georgia woman, a widow of a fallen Confederate soldier, is due the idea of the establishment of a Southern, and, indirectly, a National Memorial Day. Mrs. Mary Williams and her little daughter often visited the grave of her husband who was buried in Columbus, Ga., and one day the little daughter asked her mother if she might also place flowers on the graves of other Confederate soldiers. Readily conceiving what a glorious and appropriate tribute this would be, Mrs. Williams wrote a letter to the Columbus Times, in which she said:

We cannot raise monumental shafts and inscribe thereon their many deeds of heroism, but we can keep alive the memory of the debt we owe them by dedicating at least one day in each year to embellishing their humble graves with flowers.

This idea was universally approved in the South; the Southern Memorial Association being the outgrowth; and the various States in "Dixie" legally set aside a day known as "Memorial Day." April 26 was selected for this purpose in Georgia.

Mrs. John A. Logan, the wife of General John A. Logan, Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, the association of *October 1, 1931. There are individual burials in other parts of Europe.

Federal soldiers of the War Between the States, witnessed a Memorial Day celebration in Virginia, and on her return to Washington, D. C., told her husband of the beautiful observance. General Logan, through his organization, was instrumental in having the United States Government establish a day for memorial services for the Federal dead. In later years this day was made all inclusive and May 30 is now "National Memorial Day" dedicated to the memory of the dead of all American wars. And to a Georgia woman is justly due the credit for the origin of the idea of wearing a red poppy in remembrance of those who died in the crimson covered fields of Flanders.

On the morning of November 6, 1918, while serving on the staff of the Young Men's Christian Association, Overseas Headquarters, Hamilton Hall, Columbia University, New York City, Miss Moina Michael of Athens, Ga., read the immortal poem of Colonel John McCrae, and penned an answer to this inspired challenge.

COLONEL McCRAE'S POEM

*In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses row on row,
That mark our place, and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard among the guns below.*

*WE ARE THE DEAD—Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
IN FLANDERS FIELDS*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from failing hands we throw
THE TORCH. Be yours to hold it high!
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
IN FLANDERS FIELDS*

MISS MICHAEL'S ANSWER

*Oh, you who sleep in Flanders Fields
Sleep sweet—to rise anew
We caught the torch you threw
And holding high, we keep the Faith
With all who die.*

*We cherish too the poppy red
That grows in fields where valor led;
It seems to signal to the skies
That blood of heroes never dies,
But lends a luster to the red
Of the Flowers that bloom above the dead
In Flanders Fields*

*And now the Torch and Poppy red
We wear in honor of our Dead
Fear not that ye have died for naught;
We've learned the lesson that ye taught
In Flanders Fields.*

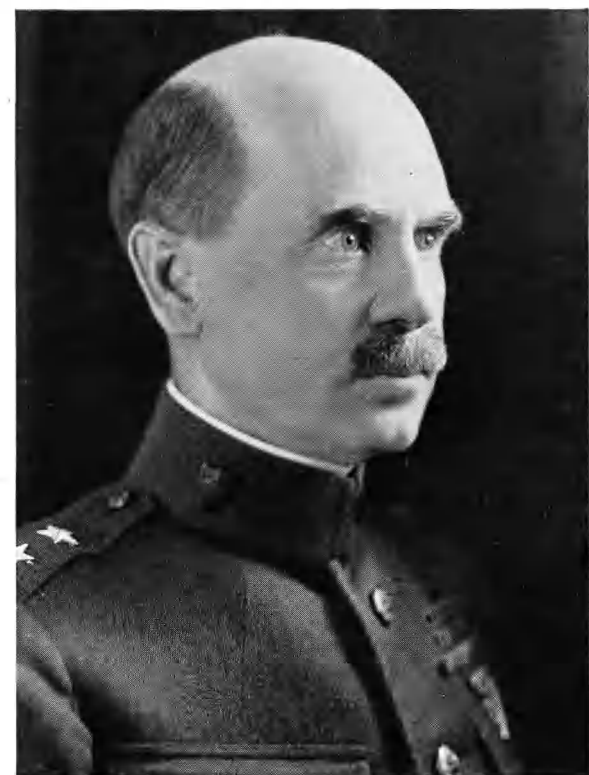

The 25th Conference was then in session and those who heard the poem written by Miss Michael; and appreciating the depth of the thought embodied, asked for permission to present this idea and the poppies made by Miss Michael to the Conference. This presentation won loud acclaim and, as the conference ended, men requested Miss Michael to give them a poppy to wear in memory of the dead of the World War—the first time in America that the poppy was used as a memorial flower of the World War.

The record of the adoption of the red poppy as the official flower of the Department of Georgia, The American Legion, its presentation by the delegates from Georgia to the National Convention and its adoption as the official flower of The Legion by the National Organization, and its subsequent adoption by the National organization of the American Legion Auxiliary, is fully treated in the record of the Georgia Department.

MAJOR GENERAL PETER C. HARRIS Adjutant General U. S. Army

Peter C. Harris was born in Kingston, Ga. on November 10, 1865; the son of Charles Hooks and Margaret Ann Monk Harris. After an early education in the elementary schools of his native state, he secured in 1884 an appointment to the United States Military Academy, graduating in 1888. In 1895 he was a honor graduate of the United States Infantry and Cavalry School for officers at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, being then a Second Lieutenant in the 13th U. S. Infantry. As his efficiency as an officer and as a leader was appreciated, he gradually rose in the service. As Colonel, he became Adjutant General on May 15, 1917; then Brigadier General, National Army, on

Brigadier General Peter C. Harris
Adjutant General of the Army

December 17, 1917 and Adjutant General of the United States Army with the rank of Major General on September 1, 1918. After thirty-four years of active service, Major General Peter C. Harris was retired on August 31, 1922. His career in the military service of the Nation is most interesting. From 1907 to 1911 he was on duty with the General Staff. He served in the Spanish-American War, the Philippine Insurrection, and in the World War. During the conflict with Spain, he was nominated by the President, Brevet Captain "for gallantry in battle" at Santiago de Cuba, July 1, 1898. For his services as Adjutant General of the U. S. Army during the World War he was the recipient of the Distinguished Service Medal. Other decorations bestowed upon him are, Legion of Honor (France), and Order of the Crown (Italy).

On September 30, 1894 in Fort Reno, Oklahoma, Lieutenant Peter C. Harris was married to Miss Mary Guthrie, the daughter of an Army officer. Their children were:

Bayard Guthrie Harris, born Fort Porter, N. Y. (deceased).

Charles Dashiell Harris, born Fort Niagara, N. Y. (killed in action, October 20, 1918, Captain, 6th Engineers, A. E. F.)

John Guthrie Harris (born Fort Porter, N. Y. (deceased).

No Georgian held a higher rank than did Major General Peter C. Harris and no American officer could have excelled General Harris in the efficiency and capability which he displayed as the Adjutant General of the United States Army, in the critical period of the World War.

Georgia is justly proud of Major General Peter C. Harris.
